Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 0930 hrs

There is less than 100 people on Parliament Hill and 2-300 people in the corridor of Wellington, Elgin and Rideau/Sussex and growing . There has been no change in our geographical boundaries. There has been no discernable change in the number of heavy trucks in the core, but there are more personal vehicles participating in the related events Officers deployed in support of operations in static, QRT and mobile response capacities. Traffic officers are currently actively engaged in enforcement and monitoring for any convoy activity. POU units will be in staggered deployment later today.

There are two known Convoys scheduled for today to start at 0900 hrs. The first at CTC has 20 personal vehicles on site. The second convoy from Coventry is our usual group and has approximately 40 vehicles.

their respective routes were shared on social media. As a result, two counter protests have arisen, blocking the Riverside Dr at Bank St (to block the Coventry group) and in front of 474 Elgin (to block the CTC group). FLD and QRT resources have been deployed and PLT is also enroute.

The War Memorial is currently vacant and there are no veterans on site. Veteran's Affairs was queried and we are awaiting a response. Federal Public Works recommends that the fencing NOT be installed for operational reasons but understands the political impacts.

A Pancake breakfast is scheduled for 1000 hrs at the Terry Fox Memorial, hosted by [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Members continue to monitor and report on the evolving situations.
